□ Double-spaced typing with 12-point font (Times New Roman style).

□ Proper sequence of title page, abstract and keywords, introduction, materials and methods, results, discussion, references, tables, and figure legends.

□ Title page with article category, article title, running title (less than 8 words), authors’ full name(s) (family name in bold) and affiliation, address for correspondence (including e-mail address), author contributions, ORCID iDs, and funding sources, if any.

□ Abstract in a structured format for original articles and in an unstructured format for others.

□ The text begins on a separate page including Introduction, Methods, Results, and Discussion.

□ Page and serial line numbers provided from the beginning of the main text.

□ All tables and figures are cited in the text.

□ A title for each table and figure (a brief phrase no longer than 15 words) is included, and a self-explanatory legend is added as needed.

□ References are listed in a proper format and numbered in the order they appear in the text. The references listed in the References section are cited in the text and vice versa.

□ Compliance to the Reporting Guideline(s) appropriate for the manuscript, and uploading the related checklist(s).

□ Cover letter stating the article’s scientific significance, the exclusive submission of the manuscript to the JVS, and indicating the conflicts of interest of all listed authors, if any.

□ “Authorship Responsibility and License Agreement Form” signed by all the authors.

□ Certificate of English proofreading (Manuscript submitted without a certificate may undergo the English editing procedure of the JVS, and the author(s) will be charged for that editing).

□ Each author has read the manuscript and agrees with the submission.